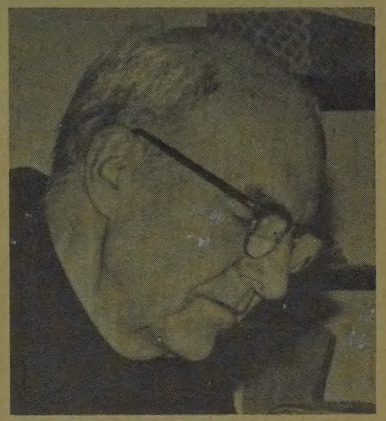
THE ABBOT ANSELM COPPERSMITH SCHOLARSHIP



How do we thank a man for an entire lifetime? Abbot Anselm has been a Benedictine more than 51 years and a priest more than 47. For 38 of them he has been deeply involved in priestly formation. And he still is!

He began in 1935. He taught religion, Latin, Greek Sacramental and Ascetical Theology, Liturgy, and even mathematics. He was Spiritual Director and chaplain, prefect and prior, Abbot of Conception Abbey and Chancellor of Conception Seminary. Now he is Director of Public Relations.

Abbot Anselm is a man who deeply loves God, and the vocation to monastic life and priesthood. It is God's gift to him, and so to us. The example of what he is has been vastly more important than even all the work he has done.

The ABBOT ANSELM COPPERSMITH SCHOLARSHIP is a way of giving thanks, and of carrying on the work he has given his life to. We invite you to join us in honoring Abbot Anselm, and in advancing the work of helping today's young men answer God's call to lives of priestly service.

Dear Fred,

Your Ancester charts and genealogical tables arrived yesterday, and I just wish to inform you of their safe arrival. When I have time I hope to examine them carefully. They are of special interest to me.

I am happy to make this contact with you. It is natural for all of us to be interested in the members of our family. I had a delightful visit with your parents last summer in Kansas. Some day I hope that I can meet you also.

What I know about the Lager family, I shall be happy to share with you, but I am afraid I can add very little. What I know I learned mostly from Mercedes Lager's book. But I found that very interesting.

I am certain that she could be of help to you, if you could arrange to meet her sometime. For her work she received some help from a relative of yours, a Mr Crider, from Vienna, I believe.

I am enclosing a few pictures of myself which you may find of some interest. I may have more information later. Why don't you come here for a visit some time, then we could talk about it. For the present I might note a very minor point. Already Mercedes indicated my baptismal name was Alford. But I have always gone by the name of Alfred, until I came to the abbey. Anselm from then on.

Perhaps later I shall have more time to devote to this interesting subject of family history. Presently I am busy on a different project. I have been assigned to write the Directory for celebrating Mass. This directory is used by fifteen abbeys abd twenty convents. It is printed each year. I am working on that project now.

If I can be of help later on the family history, I shall be glad to do so.

It's good to have contact with you.

Greetings,

Father Anselm, OSB

Anselm Coppersmith, OSB

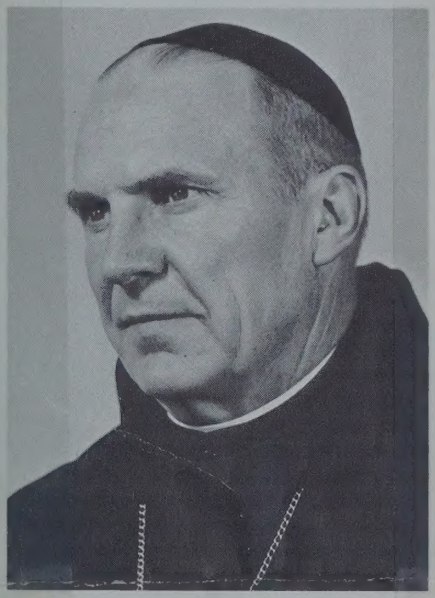
TO ELECT ABBOT APR. 2

Abbot Anselm Coppersmith, 61, for nine years head of the Conception, Mo., community of the Order of St. Benedict has resigned. The announcement was made Monday, March 2. An election by the 128 members of the abbey to choose a successor will be held at Conception Thursday, April 2.

Born at nearby Clyde, Mo., almost in the shadow of the abbey church, Abbot



Anselm attended parochial school at Clyde and took his high school and college studies at Conception. He took his vows in the Order of St. Benedict at Conception Aug. 27, 1928. Having received a B. A. degree, he went to Rome for study in San Anselmo college and to obtain a licentiate in theology. He was ordained in Rome in July, 1933.

Later he received a master's degree in ancient languages from Washington university, St. Louis.

From 1934 until 1959, Abbot Anselm served in various capacities at Conception abbey, including the position of prior. In 1959, he was made prior of Mt. Michael monastery, Elkhorn, Nebr., and was there until elected abbot of Conception in Nov. 1961. He succeeded Abbot Stephen Schappler who died earlier the same month.

The Conception community, including priests, novices, and Brothers, numbers 128. They are engaged in various duties at the abbey, at Conception seminary with its 169 students for the priesthood from a number of different dioceses, and the retreat house at Conception, at the dependent priory in Pevely, southeast Missouri, and in the Pastoral Formation Center, Rockhurst college. Seven members of the abbey are stationed in Kansas City; two in St. Aloysius' parish, three at the pastoral center, one in Visitation parish,

Dear Fred.

I just want to let you know how much I enjoyed your recent visit here at the abbey. I was so glad that you came. I hope we can meet again and do so often. I would like to have more contact with your family.

I have a niece living with her family in Dodge City, Kansas, and I visit her occasionally. On one or other of these trips I have stopped at Hutchinson to visit your parents. I have always enjoyed doing so. I hope to see them again also.

During the past few days I have been able to look over the detailed genealogy of the Lager family. I am very grateful for this information. There is so much about my family of which I am ignorant. I wish I knew as much about them as you do.

I was especially interested in the geneaology of Grandpa Joseph Lager. We have him in common, although I am one generation ahead of you. Thanks so much for sending this information.

There is one or other detail which might be improved if y ou do any more work on this. You have me listed as"Alford" - "Alfred". I do not recall that the name"Alford" was ever applied to me. If you make any corrections in the future, you might omit this name altogether. But, of course, this is a minor matter.

I find it most interesting to read the details about your grand-father and especially of my grandfather. I like to trace his origins in Germany. My father also came from Germany, althugh from a different section of the country. I celebrated my first mass there and have visited there at different tines. I find the information you give of our ancestors in this country very interesting.

I hope we can meet again and continue our discusssion of our family history.

Greetings and Good Wishes,

devotedly,

Albert Anselm, OSB
